

Thank you for taking the time to view the proposals for the residential redevelopment of the former Pyestock/Hartland Park site.

The project team is keen to hear your views on the updated proposals on display today, which will allow us to undertake further design work prior to the submission of a planning application next year.

Please feel free to complete the questionnaire below and hand it to a member of the project team today or, alternatively, send your feedback to us via one of the options shown below.

You can return your comments or contact us with any further feedback or questions...
